

The ENGHL Department hosted the annual Speech and Drama Festivals in Junior and Senior phases, with most pleasing results. Our beloved adjudicator, Mrs Sherlee Wade, was most appreciative of the remarkable talent displayed by those entrants who took the time to perfect their items. The results are as follows:

Senior Festival: A total of 181 A/A+ symbols awarded from 270 entries.

Special mention:

Grade 12 (4 A+ symbols)	Grade 11 (4 A+ symbols)	Grade 10 (4 A+ symbols)
Ntombenhle Makhubu Sadiyah Sader	Rithi Ramkhelawan Neha Singh Siddhi Singh	Juwairiyah Gaffar Amisha Moodley Alexandria Nyathi

Junior Festival: A total of 121 A/A+ symbols awarded from 248 entries.

Special mention:

Grade 9 (3 A+ symbols)	Grade 8 (3 A+ symbols)
Shikara Bharath Ziyanda Makhanya Siya Mdlalose	Nekeisha Goorahoo Nkazimulo Gwija Sina Sithebe

Special mention is also made of Uwais Coetzee, who was awarded Honours for Speech and Drama in 2017. He completes his Speech and Drama participation with a grand total of 35 A/A+ symbols, competing in both ENGHL and AFRFAL from Grade 8 to Grade 12.
